JAMIE

It gives me enormous pleasure to welcome you to another annual production from St Mary's College Performing Arts faculty - the 'HULL PERFORMANCE ACADEMY'

We are celebrating another hugely successful year for the department.

Earlier this month we were in attendance at the Drama and Music Awards in London for our excellence in Musical Theatre nomination. It gives us enormous pride to know that we have been nationally recognised for the work we do and the experience that our students receive.

A few weeks ago, our dancers and Musical Theatre students entertained audiences at the prestigious MOVE-IT event at the Excel arena in London. The event spans 3 days and this year we were selected to perform on the iconic Main Stage. The event was a huge success and I am very proud that we have this opportunity offered to our students.

Our Acting Company are currently underway with their rehearsals for 'The Curious Incident Of The Dog In The Night-Time' as well as our Year 13 students rehearsing their production of John Godber's 'Shakers'. In June, junior students in the school will perform 'Joseph & The Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat', the Andrew Lloyd Webber timeless classic.

Tickets for these shows are sold via our Ticketsource box office (www.ticketsource.co.uk/smchull).

Finally, on the 4th July our students take to the stage at Middleton Hall at Hull University for our end of year celebration. Tickets will be available soon from their box office.

Tonight, on stage you will see incredible talent from Year 10 through to Year 13. Everybody's Talking About Jamie is a wonderful story about individuality, identity and creativity wrapped up with youthful contemporary musical theatre tracks.

I do hope that you enjoy the performance.

Mr B Lancaster - Director of the Performing Arts Faculty

Welcome to our exhilarating production of "Everybody's Talking About Jamie"!

Thank you for joining us for our 2025 school production of Everybody's Talking About Jamie! It has been an absolute joy to direct this incredible show, and I am immensely proud of our talented students and dedicated staff who have worked tirelessly to bring it to life.

Based on a true story, Everybody's Talking About Jamie follows sixteen-year-old Jamie New, a teenager from Sheffield who has high hopes and dreams for his school prom. Despite bullying, self-doubt, and obstacles along the way, Jamie finds the courage to step into the spotlight with the unwavering support of his loving mother and friends. Full of uplifting songs, humour, and heart, this inspiring musical celebrates self-expression, acceptance, and the power of being unapologetically yourself.

I hope you enjoy the show as much as we have enjoyed creating it. Your support means the world to our cast and crew—thank you for being part of this special experience! Enjoy the performance!

Mr N Wood - Director of Performances
