What resources are available to me?

Revision pages in preparation for Activity 1/2/4 will be made available. Learners are allowed to create notes to take into each of the written activities. They must follow the exam board guidelines, be approved by your member of staff, and must be retained by the department after use.

What is expected of me?

You must work hard in lessons and communicate with your examination group members. Although you are assessed individually, your teamwork skills are imperative. You must be organised both in lesson time and as part of your home studies too. You will need to keep a weekly log of what activities you have completed in class so that you can complete the note section for your written elements.
