SPANISH A LEVEL Pre-course reading and guidance

Why choose A level in Spanish?

A Level Spanish is a challenging but rewarding course to choose, and one that will provide intellectual stimulus alongside opportunities to develop, both personally and linguistically, during your continued education at St Mary's College. Choosing A level allows you to move towards fluency in the language, at the same time as broadening your knowledge of Hispanic countries and culture. You will study a range of topics such as art, heritage, cinema, politics, immigration, making the course engaging and diverse.

Spanish is spoken widely across the world; it is the official language of 20 countries and of course, it is the fastest growing language in the USA. The opportunity for future travel and employment are also something to consider.

You will find the course enriching and gain real satisfaction from being able to truly express yourself in Spanish with increasing fluency as you move through your studies.

EXAM SPECIFICATION LINKS

We use the exam board AQA and the full specification for A level, along with resources can be found using the link below:

THE FILM

‘El Laberinto del fauno’

Director:
Guillermo de Toro

Set against the appalling horrors of the Spanish Civil War, Ofelia the main character escapes reality via a fantasy world she creates in this fairy tale for adults. Cinematographically beautiful with a heart-breaking storyline, it is no wonder that this film was awarded Best Original Screenplay and Best Foreign Film by BAFTA and won a host of Oscars too. It is a dark, disturbing and moving film which you will enjoy getting to know.
